November 27 – Richard McCaine

November 28 – Len Thompson

Gerry met a person who is interested in starting an action type shooting. It is still in the works.

Silhouette shoot, per Bill Pitman it's on Wednesdays and it's a lot of fun.

NRL shoot per Wayne Woodcock explained the shoot, it cost $6.00, sign in is at 9 AM and match starts at 10 AM. For more information is on the website under Shooting Disciples.

Small-bore League is starting back up in December; the target scores need to be in by Friday so Wayne Woodcock can submit them by Sunday. Participants may shoot their targets anytime and should leave the targets in the cabinet. There will be no traveling this year. Cost is $15.00 for more information; please visit the website under Shooting Disciples.

Other items discussed:

Len Thompson mentioned that he has a friend who had woodstove and he wanted to know if we want it for the outside range. Len said that he get it and bring it up to the range.

Gerry said that they are having a NRA banquet at the legion Hall it cost $50.00 per person. Half of the money goes to the Olympic, Boy Scouts. It does not go to administrative and the money stays in the state. They have requests from different events and money is given out so much per year. This event is on Saturday, November 6, 2021 it starts at 5 PM. There are 100 seats and Robert Kaiser at the Lumber yard is selling tickets.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:05 PM

Cindy Sacry

Interim Secretary
